WBC TO PROCLAIM THE WORD OF GOD AT THE T-MOBILE CENTER FOR A PERFORMANCE BY DRAKE & J. COLE (1407 GRAND BLVD., KANSAS CITY, MO) SATURDAY, MARCH 2ND, FROM 7:00 - 7:45 PM

Drake enjoys a world-wide platform from which to proclaim the truth of God to this wayward generation. He gives lip-service to God but doesn't exhort his fellow man to repent and flee the wrath to come. Instead, he enriches himself while enjoying a lascivious lifestyle of parties and fornication. As the apostle Paul tells us, "the love of money is the root of all (or, all kinds of) evil" (1 Tim. 6:10). We don't know all the sinful motivations in a man's heart, but we can (and must) apply Biblical standards to the fruits we see. Drake enjoys the lifestyle his wealth and fame affords him more than serving the Lord.

The message Drake communicates loud and clear is YOLO, an acronym for "You Only Live Once." While true that humans walk the earth for one lifetime, those who follow Christ have a hope of eternal life while those who do not suffer eternal fire and damnation. The YOLO message is not particularly edifying or helpful when considering the course of eternity. Drake encourages a self-serving, ephemeral lifestyle of fun and frolic with no regrets for our sins. The Scriptural lesson we should take away from the nature of our existence is that since we only live once in these frail human bodies, we should seek to serve God in humility and repentance with all of our heart.

The Lord is coming. Repent while it is still today.
Fear God and obey His commandments!
