

God's Word is Hallowed Now
(Parody of "Shallow" by Lady Gaga and Bradley Cooper)

You'll be in turmoil
Christ is coming to reclaim this world
Tho you hate his word
Every knee will bow and call Him Lord
You're falling
When seals are opened you'll find yourself
Livin' in rage
When trumps are sounding, you'll flee yourself
When things are in turmoil
God has made earthly things all void
Then vials will bring much more
The earth is shaken to its core
You're falling
In all the end times you'll find yourself
In worldwide rage
When trumps are sounding, you'll flee yourself
You're in the deep end, God has revealed them
Your dead fill up the ground
Creation crashing, you should have heard us
God's Word is hallowed now
It is hallowed, hallowed
It is hallowed, hallowed
It is hallowed, hallowed
God's Word is hallowed now
Oh, oh, oh, oh, Whoah!
You're in the deep end, God has revealed them
Your dead fill up the ground
Creation crashing, you should have heard us
God's Word is hallowed now
It is hallowed, hallowed
It is hallowed, hallowed
It is hallowed, hallowed
God's Word is hallowed now
