WBC TO RENDEZVOUS AGAIN WITH BRAD PAISLEY, PROVOKING HIM TO LOVE FOR HIS FELLOW MAN AND TRUE GOOD WORKS RELATED TO HIS ETERNAL SOUL AT KANSAS UNIVERSITY (MEMORIAL STADIUM, LAWRENCE) FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14TH, FROM 7:15 – 8:00 PM

Brad Paisley's conscience was stirred up within him, when he saw Westboro's signs on a hilltop of truth and hope in Bonner Springs, Kansas. He took a selfie in front of "Sin Breeds Violence", but was afraid of the reproach of man, so found it necessary to mock the sign – instead of offering it as hope to his fans. We all on this globe (Brad Paisley included) have a duty to each other, in this wise: "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works" (Hebrews 10:24). And this: "If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well" (James 2:8). From the beginning this duty was given by God to mankind: "Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbor, and not suffer sin upon him" (Leviticus 19:17).

When Brad Paisley was questioned by the country music media about his selfie and commentary, he used that occasion to glorify the raping murderous military. He was supposed to give God the glory. "To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen" (Jude 1:25). The American military is not worthy of any praise. This nation decided it had a better standard than God's standard of true scriptural brotherly love. So today the nations of the world hate the USA, and hence the USA must have a multi-trillion dollar standing military. That same military is rotten from the inside, full of sexual predators, violent psychopaths and self-righteous "patriots". The worthless defense system of America is only one of its many plagues. The solution is and always has been so blessedly simple: "A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day: And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known" (Deuteronomy 11:27-28). It is too late for this cursed land, full of soldier-worshippers. Brad Paisley is the product of a nation that has brazenly forgotten God and made proud, vulgar, filthy sin its policies and mores. So we must urge Brad Paisley and all his fans and other passersby thusly: "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues" (Revelation 18:4). Who knows if this is the time when one of the tender-hearted little sheep of God will hear, be pierced in his heart, mourn for his sin, commit his way unto the Lord, and be saved. We thus hope for all our fellow Americans, and all mankind everywhere. Like Paul the Apostle told Agrippa, "I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds" (Acts 26:28-29). Our plea is this:

"..the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent"
(Acts 17:30)
