This all started with WBC's flier announcing our protests at Paul McCartney's show in Wichita, Kansas on July 19th, 2017, which heavily incorporated McCartney/Beatle song titles. Moments after that event ended, McCartney famously Tweeted to his 3.3 million followers his appreciation of our appearance. His Tweet (left) featured doctored signs ALSO referencing McCartney/Beatle song titles.

Continuing that trend –

As for WBC members, We All Stand Together during our protests, holding Bible-based truths on placards. With us on the scene July 23rd, Paul McCartney will experience No More Lonely Nights. We have seen McCartney's Band on the Run on his current tour, but there's still time to stop and read the signs – like Repent or Perish -- the only hope in these pitch black days. Maybe I'm Amazed is what we say when we see God's irresistible grace at work in a wandering sheep; it's the Only Hope of Deliverance. So, God's will, Sunday night you will find us Here, There and Everywhere outside Omaha's CenturyLink Center Because we are ready, willing and (hopefully) able to preach to this generation Any Time at All including Eight Days a Week! It truly makes us Glad all Over and we hope it will be a Help! to you.
