Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. “Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.” (Ezekiel 12:2) This entire world is a rebellious house! Therefore, the Lord, the God of Israel, is punishing the people of it! Let’s view some of this week’s judgments from the proper perspective:

On Sunday, March 4th, the 90th Academy Awards ceremony was broadcasted live on television. The purpose of this annual event is purported to be to honor the best of Hollywood’s films of the year; the purpose is also to punctuate and more clearly state some political and social messages the film industry places in their movies. These messages on Sunday included calling for more diversity in film, calling out President Trump for his policies, criticizing the NRA for America’s gun laws, and encouraging the “Time’s Up” movement. “Time’s Up” is a movement to eradicate the highly prevalent issue of sexual assault against women from Hollywood, which has plagued the industry for decades. In all of the many speeches of the night, no one mentioned Hollywood’s evil role in this grievous issue of sexual assault. Year after year, movies are pumped out for mass consumption that seek to tear down God’s standards in the Earth and encourage the people in paths of sin. “As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.” (Isaiah 3:12) These films are created by people who are the polar opposite of the blessed man described in Psalm 1:1 – “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.” They are absolutely entrenched in sin and push content out that cheers every possible manner and permutation of sin, fornication, and blasphemy. What shall I say more of the speakers and nominees at the 2018 Oscar Awards? For the time would fail me to tell of Emma Stone, who portrayed abortion-having divorcee and dyke Billie Jean King in “Battle of the Sexes,” and of Armie Hammer, who played an old fag who courts an underage fag in “Call Me By Your Name,” and of Kobe Bryant, who was accused of rape in 2003, and more. It is no wonder at all that they find themselves in the throes of such a scandal. Members of Hollywood must repent of their sins, stop provoking their fellow man to sin, and instead do their duty to “consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works.” (Hebrews 10:24)

On Tuesday, March 6th, porn star Stormy Daniels, whose real name is Stephanie Clifford, sued President Donald Trump. It was widely reported in January of 2018 that Trump allegedly had an affair with Daniels in 2006, just after Melania Trump gave birth to their son Barron. Right before Trump was elected president, Daniels reportedly signed an agreement in October of 2016 in which she agreed to not discuss the affair publicly and was paid $130,000 in return. In Daniels’ lawsuit filed on Tuesday, she is asking the court to nullify that contract, because Trump apparently did not sign the contract himself. It is obvious to anyone with proper eyes viewing this situation that Trump is one of the immoral leaders spoken of in this verse: “[...] to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.” (Daniel 4:17) The blind, so-called “Evangelical” supporters of Trump continue to tap-dance around this glaringly sinful issue. Robert Jeffress, a member of Trump’s “Evangelical Advisory Board,” said on Fox News on Thursday that this sin is “totally irrelevant to our support” of this “great president” and that “forgiveness is available through Christ for anyone who asks.” Jeffress, and anyone who refuses to denounce this adultery, is a coward who cannot claim to be a Christian. Jeffress, who is the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dallas, Texas, is a far cry from John the Baptist, who was decapitated for telling King Herod, “It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother’s wife.” (Mark 6:18) Not only must this affair be condemned, but Trump’s continued living in sin with Melania, who is not his first or true wife, must also regularly be condemned; the scripture sayeth: “Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.” (Luke 16:18)

Woe to you who have hardened your hearts against the Lord and His word. The destruction of this world is imminent; you must believe on Christ, repent of your sins, and seek the Lord with humility. “For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.” (Zephaniah 2:4-5)

Repent or Perish!
