Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. “Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.” (Ezekiel 12:2) This entire world is a rebellious house! Therefore, the Lord, the God of Israel, is punishing its people! Let’s view some of this week’s judgments from the proper perspective:

On Tuesday, September 4th, the world-wide televised farce formally known as the Supreme Court judicial confirmation hearings began in order to vet the nominee, Brett Kavanaugh. Chosen by Donald Trump in July to replace retired justice Anthony Kennedy, Kavanaugh has the reputation of a right-leaning ‘constitutional originalist,’ a stance indicating that as a justice, he will enforce the constitution as written, period. Were he to be appointed, the ratio of justices on the court would shift in favor of those with this ideology. This has led many to believe that past rulings such as ‘Roe v Wade,’ which established a constitutional right to abortion, and Obergefell v Hodges,’ which established the right for Sodomites to ‘marry,’ both rulings being the product of a so called ‘loose constructionist’ view of the constitution, would be overturned. In light of this likely eventuality, Kavanaugh’s confirmation hearing abounded with demon-possessed protesters, senatorial grandstanding, and other melodrama all aimed to prevent the nomination with the ultimate goal of preserving every American’s ‘constitutional right’ to unhindered sinning. Shameful. The Lord’s position, like the Lord Himself, has not and will not change: Thou shalt not kill (Exodus 20:13); If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination (Leviticus 20:13): Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people (Proverbs 14:34)

On Friday, September 7th, North Carolina Governor Roy Cooper declared a state of emergency in response to Tropical Storm Florence. South Carolina Governor Henry McMaster shortly followed in Cooper’s wake, declaring a state of emergency on Saturday for South Carolina. Tropical Storm Florence is expected to strengthen to a Hurricane before making landfall. Due to the unpredictable nature of Florence’s path, both Carolinas are bracing for strong rains and coastal flooding. We live in a time where the name of God is so far from the mind of man, that in a time of great distress, man turns to his own devices to save himself without it ever crossing his mind that the Lord made the storm, the Lord controls the storm, and the Lord knows exactly what the storm will do- to the smallest drop of water. “For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.” (Romans 1:20-22)

On Thursday, September 6th, Actor Burt Reynolds died at the age of 82. Burt was on the scene in Hollywood since the late 1950’s. It is the duty of all mankind to “Fear God, and keep his commandments” (Ecclesiastes 12:13), and Mr. Reynolds was no exception. In fact, he had a heightened platform from which he could be an example of morality in a darkening age. Instead he put away the wife of his youth, married another, and stood by as the moral fabric of the United States, and the world, tore and disintegrated. Shame on Burt Reynolds for ignoring his duty to his fellow man, and shame on the belligerent fools who own and operate the Hollywood juggernaut. The film industry has had the captive eye of society for decades, and has done nothing but push the agenda of anyone opposed to the standards of the Lord God. Instead of remembering Burt Reynolds for his work as an actor, remember him for his failure to serve God, and use that as a reminder of what not to do. The only end for those who forget God is hell. “The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.” (Psalm 9:17)

Woe to you who have hardened your hearts against the Lord and His word. The destruction of this world is imminent; you must believe on Christ, repent of your sins, and seek the Lord with humility. “For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.” (Zephaniah 2:4-5)

Repent or Perish!
