Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. “Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.” (Ezekiel 12:2) This entire world is a rebellious house! Therefore, the Lord, the God of Israel, is punishing the people of it! Let’s view some of this week’s judgments from the proper perspective:

This week, New England Patriots owner Robert Kraft, among other big names, was charged with two counts of soliciting sex in a Florida prostitution investigation. Despite video evidence, the allegations were denied. Despite what this age of “democracy” would have you believe, the rich are still the powerful- money talks! Mr. Kraft has the ear of the people and President of the US, and his actions here are only proof that he has not used that platform the Lord gave him properly. Look to Daniel to see the true form of Robert Kraft: “This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.” (Daniel 4:17) Mr. Kraft, like all mankind, has a need to heed the many warnings of the Scripture about the temptations and difficulties of a rich man in this life, who chooses to serve mammon rather than God. “But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. ” (Matthew 6:21-24) “But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.” (1 Timothy 6:9-10) “It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needles, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.” (Mark 10:25) These words should cause any man who has fallen to the love of money to turn from that sin and seek the Lord!

Long-brewing tensions in Venezuela continue to rise. The latest eruption comes from soldiers stationed on the Venezuela-Colombia border, ordered by President Nicolas Maduro to stop trucks carrying aid from crossing the border. The aid was requested by Venezuelan opposition leader Juan Guaido who has declared himself the interim President of Venezuela. Many leaders around the globe have recognized his so-called authority because they want the quasi-socialist government currently running Venezuela to fall, citing government mismanagement, corruption and authoritarianism. If anyone with a platform to speak in that country had an interest in serving the Lord, they would point all Venezuelans to Romans 13: “Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God’s ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.” (Romans 13:1-7) To those soldiers who are obeying those who have rule over them, hear the words of John the Baptist: “And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.” (Luke 3:14) President Nicolas Maduro has a responsibility to his people as much as they have one to him- turn to the Lord and ask, with repentance in your heart, for an understanding of the proper way to operate in your lot!

Repent or Perish!
