Theresa May
Home Secretary of the United Kingdom
Re: UK Ban of Westboro Baptist Church member Steve Drain (HO ref: D1177682)

Dear Ms. May:

The people of the United Kingdom have officially declared themselves to be the enemies of the Living God. The Department of Home Security has banned me, as well as other members of the Westboro Baptist Church, from entry into their wretched land on the grounds that our “exclusion is conducive to the public good.” Rubbish! There is nothing more conducive to the public good than the pure, unvarnished preaching of God’s word to a nation of filthy, degenerate souls. The hell-bound citizens of the UK need the gospel preaching of WBC more than they need air to breathe or water to drink! But the UK has made it a crime to preach the word of God without perversion, timidity or ambiguity, banning His prophets from entering its borders and jailing its own citizens for telling their neighbors the truth about their sins, manner of life and eternal prospects.

This ‘banning’ is evidently the brain child of poor students of history, so here’s a quick lesson: immediately on the heels of enacting similar measures designed to throttle the preaching of pure gospel doctrine (such as the Act of Uniformity of 1662, the Conventicle Act of 1664, and the Five Mile Act of 1665), the Lord God punished your “framing of mischief by a law” (Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? – Psa. 94:20) by sending you the Great London fire of 1666, devastating the entire city. This is but an adumbration of His great wrath against any nation that will not submit to His ultimate authority, to wit: The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God. Psa. 9:17.

You are the nation that imprisoned John Bunyan for twelve years merely for preaching what the Bible says – yet what you meant for evil, God meant for good. During his time in prison, Bunyan wrote The Pilgrim’s Progress, an allegory that has encouraged and emboldened God’s elect in their service to their King and that has become the second most read book in Western civilization, behind the Bible. Like a rabid dog, you now return to your vomit, again attempting to suppress, choke out the word of God from flowing freely in the streets of Birmingham, Belfast, Newport and Edinburgh. Your political and legislative leaders are the picture of the dread warning of the Psalmist:

Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.— Psa. 2:1-6

Undoubtedly, this great evil that you have wrought will turn against you, and the Lord will open great doors of utterance in spreading the only word of hope available in these last, dark days, that His name might be glorified in your iniquity. In fact, this has already begun; as the recent BBC 2 documentary 'America's Most Hated Family in Crisis' makes the rounds throughout the UK, all of Europe, Australia, Canada and parts of Asia, our GodHatesTheUK.com Web site is being read around the world. Praise God.

Your 'banning' of the servants of God has done nothing but fuel His great wrath against you and put more of a spotlight on our core message, to wit: God hates fags and God hates fag enablers; therefore, God hates the United Kingdom! By God's authority (not yours), we will continue to warn you that you have indeed become His enemy – and that the utter destruction of your nation draws nigh.

Sincerely,

Steve Drain

Servant of God and member of Westboro Baptist Church
