

Honest Parody

We gotta be honest
Destruction is coming Because you won't obey

You lied to your children
And taught them rebellion
And now they have no shame

They mock all His prophets With slashings and burnings
To them it is a game

Their hope is all gone
You raised them all wrong
God's goin' take you down

God's wrath will pour out on you – now hear our warning Humble yourselves – let your laughter turn to mourning
God's wrath will pour out on
you – now hear our warning
Humble yourselves – let your
laughter turn to mourning

We gotta be honest
His wrath is kindled
And it's way too late to pray

Your hearts are all hardened
You rebels you've sinned Away your day of grace

We plead for His vengeance
To crush all the wicked Repay them to their face

Touch not His people
You wouldn't listen
God's goin' take you down

Humble yourselves – let your
laughter turn to mourning
Humble yourselves – let your
laughter turn to mourning
