

Only Wife's Shadow

(Parody of Blake Shelton's "Savior's Shadow")

You're standing in your first wife's shadow
Where you will forever be
Thou shalt not commit adultery
How's that hard to see
You're standing in your first wife's shadow
Lord is witness against thee
You vowed to God to walk together but dealt so treacherously
God has joined you there's no leaving
To your wife you must be cleaving
Always in your first wife's shadow
Divorce can't set you free
You're standing in your first wife's shadow
Your excuses fill the air
When destruction comes upon you
He will not hear your prayer
God has joined you there's no leaving
To your wife you must be cleaving
Always in your first wife's shadow
Divorce can't set you free
God has joined you there's no leaving
To your wife you must be cleaving
Always in your only wife's shadow
Divorce can't set you free
Always in your only wife's shadow
That's where you're supposed to be
