Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. “Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.” (Ezekiel 12:2) This entire world is a rebellious house! Therefore, the Lord, the God of Israel, is punishing the people of it! Let’s view some of this week’s judgments from the proper perspective:

On Friday, March 29th, Pope Francis issued a new decree, effective June 1st, requiring the immediate report of any sexual abuse allegations with a failure to comply leading to jail time. This comes after earlier this month where Pope Francis accepted the resignation of Cardinal Ricardo Ezzati, and others, in Chile after a sexual abuse scandal was uncovered in 2010. On top of this, with the beginning of the #NunsToo movement this year about the rape and abuse of nuns by catholic priests, you would think the world would begin to see this catholic monster for what it is: a religion which caters to the flesh. Without the guidance of the simple standards set forth by God in His Word, you are left to walk in the light of your own sparks. “Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.” (Isaiah 50:10-11) Given that the default state of mankind is corruption and depravity, it is no wonder the catholic church is corrupt to its core. The Pope is a man; Jesus Christ is God. Obey God!

Also, on Friday, the Georgia House of Representatives voted to pass a bill making abortion illegal after a heartbeat is detected in the fetus, which usually occurs around the sixth week of a pregnancy. The governor, Brian Kemp, who recently took office, supported an anti-abortion stance during his campaign for office, which leads people to believe he will sign the bill into law. If this happens, the law will take effect at the beginning of 2020. Various other states are heading in a similar direction, seeking to pass bills making abortion illegal if a heartbeat is detectable. The ACLU has threatened legal action against Georgia if they pass the bill, stating that it is unconstitutional. Of course, these wicked people have no concern for the lives and rights of the baby they are murdering and even less concern for the standard of God. “Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:” (Matthew 5:21) We can see the life of those in the womb displayed by John the Baptist when he leapt: “And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost: And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.” (Luke 1:41-44) This is not a matter to compromise on, governor Kemp. There needs to be no allowance of this sin if you want to abide by the standard set by God. Otherwise, you, and everyone else allowing this sin, will be judged by Him.

This week, the NCAA Division I Men’s Basketball Tournament continued through the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, drawing millions around the United States to worship this idol. This nation is mad upon their idols and, like every nation and people before her, puts these worldly affairs above God’s standards. Just like the people of Israel of old: “But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted ... Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. ... But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols: I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;” (Ezekiel 20:13-19) People of this world, put away your idols and serve God with all your heart!
