Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. “Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.” (Ezekiel 12:2) This entire world is a rebellious house! Therefore, the Lord, the God of Israel, is punishing the people of it! Let’s view some of this week’s judgments from the proper perspective:

As Gay Pride Month continues to ramp up, this week saw many events and developments meant to push the sodomite agenda, of which a handful will be highlighted here. On Tuesday, Vice President Mike Pence confirmed that the US government’s policy was to not fly the rainbow flag at US embassies in foreign countries during Pride Month, which immediately drew the ire of the homosexual community and their allies in the media. Also on Tuesday, the High Court of Botswana unanimously ruled to decriminalize homosexuality, which previously carried a sentence of up to seven years in prison. Ecuador’s highest court ruled on Wednesday to legalize same-sex marriage. Finally, on Thursday, the entire US mainstream news media complex, whipped-up by homosexual propaganda firms, descended upon Tennessee preacher Grayson Fritts for a sermon he preached on June 2nd. In the sermon, Fritts reiterated the Biblical sentence against homosexuality, to wit: “If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.” (Leviticus 20:13). “For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. [...] Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.” (Romans 1:26-32). Fritts was forced to resign as a Knox County Sheriff’s detective two weeks ago after the sermon first came to light. This smattering of events puts the power of the dog on full display, which seeks to bring everyone to heel to that great sin. “Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.” (Psalm 22:20) It is a foretaste of the mark of the beast of the book of Revelation: a sinful symbol that each person must bear on their person in order to operate in the world and make a living in it. “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” (Revelation 13:16-17). God does not abide such a state of things forever; repent while there is yet time. “For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory. The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.” (Isaiah 3:8-9).

On Wednesday, June 12th, Pope Francis put Augustine Tolton “on the path to sainthood.” This was touted far and wide, because Tolton was the first African-American Catholic priest (as of 1886) and a former slave. He was given the title of “Venerable” on Wednesday, which allows Catholics to pray for miracles and intercession from him. This highlights the extreme idolatry and rebellion of the Catholics. Only one being can intercede for sinful man, and that is not another sinful man. Christ is your only hope for intercession. “By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. [...] Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.” (Hebrews 7:22-25).

Repent or Perish!
