WBC TO PREACH THE GOSPEL AT THE WHITE HOUSE (1600 PENNSYLVANIA AVE. WASHINGTON, DC) AND PLEAD REPENTANCE: TUESDAY, JULY 16TH, FROM 10:00 - 10:45 PM

America is a nation awash in sin at every institutional level. Local, state and federal legislatures write bills and pass laws that condone, enable and legitimize sin – all under the cloak of social progress, civil rights and a woman’s right to choose. The judicial bench, at every level, further legitimizes this wickedness by interpreting laws outside of the plain standards of God’s Holy Writ, rather than judging righteously – all under the cloak of justice. Educational institutions – from kindergarten through post-grad studies - promote sin and encourage questioning, rejecting and defiance against the plain word of God. This is done under the cloak of the pursuit of enlightenment. Mainline ‘Christian’ churches wink at sin and preach subtle, man-pleasing perversions of God’s standards from the pulpits – to the delight of their congregants who turn to their smooth words out of a refusal to endure sound doctrine. All of this is done under the cloak of moral goodness and godliness. Industry and commerce cater to all these perversions of God’s plain truth – creating further and further perceived needs and then satisfying them with the invention of evil things – all under the cloak of hard work and America’s promise of opportunity and prosperity. Mainline news and entertainment media are literally saturated with bias toward sin and away from the plain moral standards and goodness of God Almighty – using every opportunity to lionize sinners and demonize the messengers – and messages – of God. All this is done under the cloak of truth and the innate beauty of the human spirit. Medicine panders to every sin and looks to cash in on them all – creating a sanitized procedure, protocol or pharmacological solution to every affliction or ailment that humans complain of, whether real or perceived, while concocting even more of them to continue to bolster the industry. This is all done under the cloak of scientific truth, compassionate care and a Hippocratic morality. And then we have the executive branch of the federal government. No matter the evils enumerated above, the president of the United States – easily the most influential nation in the world – has the most considerable single voice in the whole world. No matter how many political and industrial enemies he would make from former allies, the president could speak the truth of God in bold, plain language – and the WHOLE WORLD would have to stop and listen. Literally every news agency would have to report it. It would be the only topic of conversation the world over if done boldly and in earnest. That’s the influence of that peculiar, powerful voice. The man who currently holds the office knows the power and influence of his voice, and uses it for selfish, vain ends. He knows that the whole world would listen if he spoke the truth of God, yet still only pretends to religion for mere political expediency. Mr. President – will you not ask the Lord to strip you of your pride, greed and vanity – and repent of that folly – and ask the Lord to cause you to humbly yet boldly speak His truth to this whole round world while you still have this considerable platform? Will you not recognize that the Lord Jesus Christ is the one true King, and that all your authority comes from His authority and that He will hold you to account for how you use or abuse that God-given authority? Will you not ask the Lord to give you true wisdom that only comes from above – so that you can rule righteously? Will you not ask the Lord to give you the courage to denounce all these institutional cloaks for sin that are listed above? Will you not see that the standards of God, earnestly, consistently and humbly applied are the only remedy for this wicked nation awash in sin?

The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God. (Psalm 9:17)

Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people. (Proverbs 14:34)
