Lord willing, Westboro Baptist Church will preach the gospel of Jesus Christ...

Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing. (Jeremiah 13:1-10)

The “stars” of this nation are, just as this girdle, “good for nothing”. They’re full of pride; stand for evil; refuse to hear/heed the word of God. Yet, come January and February of each year, this nation falls all over themselves “honoring” their “stars”. Each one tries to outdo the other with their laudatory phrases about their “stars”. The servants of God must go forth and preach the gospel of Jesus Christ in plain unambiguous words that God will not have any other gods before Him. (Exodus 20:3; Deuteronomy 5:7). Fear God and keep His commandments; this is the whole duty of man. (Ecclesiastes 12:13).

Proverbs 27:21: As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. Matthew Poole: “The sense is, So a man is known by his praises; either by the quality of those who praise and applaud him; and as they are good or bad, so is he thought to be. Or, by his carriage under praises; as he carries himself either humbly and modestly with thankfulness to God, and a due sense of his own infirmities, which is the case and temper of a good man; or ambitiously and vain-gloriously, taking to himself the honour which he should give to God, as ungodly men generally do in that case.” When your “stars” give themselves the honour that should be given to God for the talents that He has given them, that is the very picture of being vain-glorious. They have nothing that God did not give them. They have nothing to be praised or honored for, or put on a pedestal for or made your idol for. STOP IT!!
