Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. Let's view some of this week's judgments from the proper perspective:

Here are some highlights of some of the major news this past week:

- The Israel-Hamas war announced a ceasefire in Gaza that will go into effect at 1:30 am EST on Sunday the 19th. The ceasefire has four phases lasting 42 days total. The first phase will see around 1,900 Palestinian prisoners released in exchange for 33 Israeli hostages. Remember, this war started on October 7th, 2023 with Hamas attacking Israel killing some 1,200 people. Israel has responded since with offensives killing more than 46,000 Palestinians. There is so much more to say on this, but seek first the Lord in all things. No one has done that in this matter.
- The LA fires are still burning, with the current statistics showing the Palisades fires have destroyed about 5,000 structures, burned more than 23,000 acres, and are 31% contained. Meanwhile, the Eaton fire north of Pasadena has destroyed around 7,000 structures, burned over 14,000 acres, and is 65% contained. These fires have been burning since January 7th.
- The US Supreme Court upheld a ban on TikTok this past week, due to a law that TikTok must find a new, non-Chinese owner for the company. The ban goes into effect on Sunday the 19th, at which time the platform will lose 170 million American subscribers.
- In several moves to take credit away from incoming president Trump, the FDA banned red dye 3 in America, so that Biden can get credit, and president Biden commuted the sentence of 2,500 non-violent drug crimes.

In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them. God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work. (Psalm 62:7-12)

The Lord our God has granted the people of this world exceeding space for repentance. How long will you refuse to humble yourself before the Lord? Soon, all nations shall know that God, He is the Lord. As the Lord Jesus said, repent or ye shall all likewise perish (Luke 13:3&5).

Repent or Perish!
