

Yesterday,
Your God made it simple not to stray, He'd be with you if you'd just obey
He poured out blessings, yesterday

Suddenly you decided that you would not heed chasing lust and filth you take the lead denying God to your doomed seed

God was longsuffering his servants he's made to stay they said stop your sins like God warned you yesterday

Yesterday,
Your king ordered you not to betray His commands or he will curse your way
You should have listened yesterday

Talk's done
You refused all rebuke - and rose to play
Now God's
Opened his armory - it's time to pay

Yesterday
Jesus told you to look for His day Kiss the Son, you'd better not delay Cause your demise is on the way
