

Something Filthy (Parody of "Something" by the Beatles)

There's something in your filthy lives
That causes God's fierce wrath to kindle
You've coveted your neighbor's wives

God will destroy you now
You do not believe, and how

You paved the way for filthy fags
With massive divorce and remarriage
Lying fake "Christians" make us gag

God will destroy you now
You will not believe, and how

Now every day our signs do show
So you should know, you should know
We told you that God's wrath would grow
So you should know, you should know

You treacherously played the whore
And taught adultery to your children
God will shortly close the door

He will destroy you now
You cannot believe, and how
