

Obeying's That One Thing (Parody of "One Thing" by One Direction)

Won't be playing it cool
When God's wrath is on you
None of you will be brave
When God ends this human race

He'll come through the sky
He's your kryptonite-ite
Proud humans are so we-eak
Without him – you can't breathe

Something's gonna give soon Cuz we've warned you, and you will see
You need our picket signs now--
Cuz you forgot that one thing

So get out, get out, get out of your head
Focus on obeying instead
You know, you know, you know what it is
You need to do that one thing
Obeying's that one thing

You'll be begging the hills
God won't notice at all
He'll put you out of His mind
All day and all night

Something's gonna give soon
You didn't care to know His names
You need our picket signs now--
Cuz you forgot that one thing

So get all those lies right out of your
Focus on obeying instead
You know, you know, you know what
it is
Obeying's that one thing

Oh you all must be just out of your mind
Cuz you all have wasted your lives
You won't, you won't, have any more chance
Cuz you forgot that one thing
Obeying's that one thing

Woah – oh – oh- oh
Woah – oh – oh –oh-oh
Woah – oh – oh –oh

You forgot that one thing

Get out, get out, get out of your head
Focus on obeying instead

Oh get out, get out, get out of your
Focus on obeying instead
You won't, you won't, have any more
Cuz you forgot that one thing

Oh you'll go, you'll go, go out of your mind
Cuz you all have wasted your lives
You won't, you won't, have any more
Cuz you forgot that one thing

Obeying's the one thing
