

Judgment Hammer

(Parody of “Square Hammer” by Ghost)

Like a thief at night

Your life is torn asunder

By grace, you'll see

And turn your hope to Christ

The devil's closing in

Insisting on your slumber

We pray you'll see

We're getting near the time

Are you on the square?

Are you on the level?

Are you ready to stand right here right now

And resist the devil?

If you're on the square

If you're on the level

Christ calls you to stand right here right now

Repent right now

Phony Christians hide the light

Sacrificing nothing

With your God you'll be

With vengeance on His mind

God above we hail

His kingdom comes a-knockin'

We call on Thee

And lean upon our Christ

Satanists beware

No one's on His level

But you're ready to swear right here right now

You're with the devil?

Do you think you're square?

Working for the devil?

Are you ready to stand and burn right now

In hell right now?

Jesus is the square

He can make us level

Christ is ready to stand right here right now

And destroy the devil

And we're almost there

Say goodbye to devils

Time is ticking to stand, repent right now
