Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. “Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.” (Ezekiel 12:2) This entire world is a rebellious house! Therefore, the Lord, the God of Israel, is punishing the people of it! Let’s view some of this week’s judgments from the proper perspective:

Taylor Hawkins, drummer for Foo Fighters, was found dead in his hotel room this last Friday after playing a festival in Bogota, Colombia. A cause of death has not been determined, though ten substances were found in his system. Hmm. But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked (Isa 57:20-21.) This is the same Hawkins who, along with the rest of his band, made national news last August “trolling” the Westboro Baptist Church for a third time. The band drove by the protesters playing rock music and speaking about how they were there to spread love, not hate. This was how Hawkins lived: participating, and encouraging others in licentious behavior. And the world loved him for it! Hawkins is now being lauded as a family man and a role model. To such praise heapers, take heed: worship God, not man. Those that cater to their flesh are without love, as that comes from God alone. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love (1Jo 4:5-8.) Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief (Heb 4:11.) God is not Mocked.

The senate confirmation hearings began this last week for Ketanji Brown Jackson - Joe Biden’s pick to replace Stephen Breyer as the ninth Justice on the Supreme Court. “Eminently qualified,” Jackson has been praised far and wide for her credentials, meant to combat the suggestion that she was only selected for her race and gender, which according to Joe Biden she most certainly was. When asked about her religion, Jackson said she is a nondenominational protestant Christian, but prevaricated on specifics, stating: “I am reluctant to talk about my faith in this way just because I want to be mindful of the need for the public to have confidence in my ability to separate out my personal views.” A stance she is most certainly correct to hold: “Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God” (Rom 13:1.) The Lord put this country’s laws and statutes into place, and He requires all of his servants to be in subjection to them as well as to himself. What there is no excuse for, however, is her inability to provide a definition for the word “woman,” out of fear that she’d be publicly shamed for claiming that it takes more than one’s fancy to belong to a given sex. I’m sorry Mrs. Jackson, but are you for real? Of course we can’t pretend to surprise; this nation has been ebbing away at the core principles of biblical doctrine for years and years. Consider the words of Solomon: “Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set” (Pr 22:28.) There may not be a more ancient landmark than the sex God assigned you at birth; this dichotomy has existed from the beginning. “And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female” (Mt 19:4.) Your reluctance, Mrs. Jackson, to answer this simple question gives the lie away to your earlier profession of faith and belief in God. It shows that you fear and worship the creature, more than the creator; that you would save your life rather than lose it. “For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it” (Mt 16:25.) “Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen” (Rom 1:25.) You would do well Madame, to reevaluate your priorities.

Woe to you who have hardened your hearts against the Lord and His word. The destruction of this world is imminent; you must believe on Christ, repent of your sins, and seek the Lord with humility. “For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.” (Zephaniah 2:4-5)

Repent or Perish!
