“The family’s former pastor at the Eastgate Independence Church, Jill Standley, suggested Appleberry could be “gender-confused.” * * * *

But the Appleberry family’s church remained supportive. Appleberry was invited to speak to the congregation, teach bible classes and attend mission trips.

‘As a pastor, my job is to support people, and to love them as Jesus would love them,’ said Standley, the family’s former pastor. ‘Our number one goal is to love God and love our neighbor and there’s (sic) no stipulations on that’. * * * * Standley still tears up remembering watching Appleberry come to recognize his identity.” – KC Star, 1.23.2022

“Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.” – Romans 1:32
