Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. Let's view some of this week's judgments from the proper perspective:

On Thursday, February 24th, the world watched on as Russia invaded Ukraine, de facto starting a war. As the invasion commenced, Russian President Vladimir Putin made a speech declaring it a peace keeping operation while also warning: "Whoever tries to interfere with us, and even more so, to create threats for our country, for our people should know that Russia's response will be immediate and will lead you to such consequences that you have never experienced in your history." No aid is being provided to Ukraine by any country, as of yet, but European countries and the United States declared sanctions against Russia. No doubt, other countries won't start really getting involved until their wallets are impacted. The invasion continues on today, and we shall see what the Lord will do as He has wrought this work. There are no righteous nations and there is no peace in this earth, because the Lord has taken it from the inhabitants thereof. Consider what the scriptures say:

The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth. (Psalm 11:5)

Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. (Micah 2:1-2)

As a foot note to that folly, United States President Joe Biden nominated Ketanji Brown Jackson to the Supreme Court. This selection appeals to Biden's Liberal base and helps to change the subject of the way he has thus far handled the Russia situation with Ukraine. More folly. There is no righteous nation, and therefore no righteous leader in this world.

When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn. (Proverbs 29:2)

The Lord our God has granted the people of this world exceeding space for repentance. How long will you refuse to humble yourself before the Lord? Soon, all nations shall know that God, He is the Lord. As the Lord Jesus said, repent or ye shall all likewise perish (Luke 13:3&5).
