WESTBORO BAPTIST CHURCH TO PICKET PANIC AT THE DISCO AT KANSAS CITY'S T-MOBILE CENTER, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13 FROM 6:00 – 6:45 PM

Lead singer Brendon Urie has a platform and should use it to say, “If you love God, obey His law” (replacing “If you love me, let me go”) in “This is Gospel.” Instead he wallows in filthy talk about his experimentation with fag sex (gleefully reported by @HuffPostGay); pushes people to support @TrueColorsFund (organizations for fags to get their freak on & proliferate like weeds in this doomed nation); and uses his sparse talent to mock anything remotely decent and fill the airwaves with bizarre lewd videos (like all modern-day so-called “entertainers”). This lost lad is the face of his generation, and he needs WBC’s signs more than oxygen. It is truly the only and last hope for these young people who walk in thick darkness, too proud and vulgar to realize the great peril they face in eternity, because every adult they’ve encountered outside of WBC has selfishly lied to them about their duty to God! What an awful disgraceful thing it is! But Brendon, you are grown; you can still repent, put away your sin, and receive God’s blessings. Repent. That is the message of hope we’ll bring. Maybe one soul will see the words, have a heart moved with shame for the great sins of this land, and come out from this perverse generation & be saved.
