LORD WILLING, ALL THE COUNSEL OF GOD TO BE BOLDLY PROCLAIMED AT BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN CONCERT

T-MOBILE CENTER, 1407 GRAND BLVD., KANSAS CITY, MO, ON SAT., FEB. 18, FROM 6:30 - 7:15 PM

Bruce Frederick Joseph Springsteen is just an aging man, now 73 years old, who was given an allotment of time and resource like every human and given the same commandments of God as every human. Rather than use those resources in service to God, he has served himself. He's helped himself to lots of $$$ (getting an unprecedented $500 million for his music publishing rights from Sony in 2021), to sex partners (including daily renewed violation of his marriage covenant to his real wife, Julianne, who he ditched in favor of band member Patti, in an unauthorized pretend marriage), and to layers and layers of human fawning (even a fluffy 'friendship' with Barack Obama, including their 'co-authored' book: 'Renegades: Born in the USA'). Springsteen has also been a long-term activist in favor of same sex marriage and other homosexual and transgender issues, as well as pro-abortion, further demonstrating his absence of a moral core.

The root of that may all be this arrogant sin he's committed against the sovereignty and omnipotence of the Almighty God who formed him, and to whom he will shortly now give an accounting: In his self-worshiping autobiography, "Born to Run," Springsteen announced that he believes Jesus has power to save and love, "but not to damn". Bone chilling audacity is strong in that one.

WBC, in trembling gratitude that God has given us the gift of fearing Him, will plan to declare unto you all the counsel of God, faithfully leaving none out, to help Mr. Springsteen and all in the vicinity.
