GOD PERMITTING, #WBCSIGNS WILL SHINE THE LIGHT OF GOSPEL TRUTH ON THE DARK PROUD SINS OF AMERICA (AND THE UK) ON THE OCCASION OF A CONCERT BY THE BRITISH-BORN POP/ROCK MUSIC GROUP TEARS FOR FEARS STARLIGHT THEATRE, SWOPE PARK, KANSAS CITY, MO FRIDAY, JULY 14, 6:30-7:15 PM

The story of the English pop/rock band Tears for Fears has been told many times. Two British blokes met as teenagers, wrote some songs, produced an album, and built a fan base. Off to tour, making loads of money; had a falling out, made up, produced another album, toured again, made more money; rinse and repeat. Their lyrics shouting against the injustices of those who want to rule the world—with hints of socialism and hefty doses of human-worship—are popular with the generations and their voracious appetite to be entertained with notions that please the flesh. Seems harmless enough on the face of it, but in reality these gentlemen were given some talent and a platform, which obligated them to use that venue to give God the glory, and urge their neighbor to revere and obey Him. The fact that doing so would have dried up the money overnight is no excuse. On a well-traveled byway, fans will pass by on their way to be anesthetized and applauded in their proud sin. #WBCSigns are duty bound to be on the scene, with words of simple and plain Bible truth to warn them to repent and flee the wrath to come. “All people, without exception, need repentance toward God. It is not only necessary for thieves, murderers, drunkards, adulterers, and fornicators, but all who are born of Adam, without exception, need repentance toward God. The queen, the man in poverty, the rich man, the laborer, the professor and the farmer—all by nature need repentance. A forgiven sinner will always be someone who mourns over and hates his sin. Without repentance, there is no forgiveness of sins. Without repentance, there is no real happiness in the life that now is. Without repentance, you cannot be ready for heaven in the world that is yet to come.” Commentary by J.C. Ryle on Luke 13:3, “Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.” If you don't urge your neighbor to repent, you hate him in your naturally depraved heart. Don't be that guy. Urge all around to seek mercy and the gift of repentance from God.
