Signs of the Times: Shining Bible Light on Current Events

The Lord has wrought many blessed judgments in the world this week which can be seen plainly by any who have been given eyes to see, ears to hear, and a heart to understand by the gracious hand of God. “Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.” (Ezekiel 12:2) This entire world is a rebellious house! Therefore, the Lord, the God of Israel, is punishing the people of it! Let’s view some of this week’s judgments from the proper perspective:

Well, another election cycle has come and gone. Although an off year in politics, there were still various mayoral and gubernatorial races across the US which captured the imagination of the populace, not the least of which being the NYC mayoral election. It truly was a long and bitter political contest waged by what could only be described as sterling candidates. Who could forget incumbent Eric Adams, who dropped out of the race following allegations of corruption; or former New York governor Andrew Cuomo, who stepped down from his position 3 years ago amid sexual assault allegations? They really know how to pick ‘em in the big apple; truly a remarkable field of candidates: The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted (Ps 12:8.) But only one person can become the next mayor of America’s largest city, and this “honor” was awarded to the thirty-four year old political up-and-comer and Ugandan immigrant Zohran Mamdani. Though relatively unknown at the start of the race, Mamdani – who claims to be a practicing Muslim, has been the front runner for the past six months and has truly bewitched NYC and indeed much of the nation with his strange blend of support for Socialist policies, Islam, feminism, and LGBTQ issues. Now if you’re thinking that those beliefs seem to be at direct odds with one another, trust me my friends, you are not alone. This is because Mr. Mamdani, like most socialists, is at his core a humanist (that is a believer in the innate goodness of man) and he wears some or all of those issues like outfits as a means to leverage sympathy and power. It is only with such a perspective that one can believe that policies amounting to free housing and transportation can work. “As it is written, there is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one” (Ro 3:10-12.) “In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return” (Ge 3:19.) “For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat” (2Th 3:10.) The total depravity of man that began in the Garden of Eden with the original sin of our progenitors is inextricable from the curse that was laid upon us for that sin. Men like Mamdani are always attempting to circumvent God’s promise that by the sweat of our brow shall man toil and make his living on the earth. I can guarantee you that such policies will go about as well as the hopes of an ongoing unity between his bizarre coalition of gays, Muslims, and young progressive women.

Woe to you who have hardened your hearts against the Lord and His word. The destruction of this world is imminent; you must believe on Christ, repent of your sins, and seek the Lord with humility. “For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.” (Zephaniah 2:4-5)

Repent or Perish!
